

Multistate Tax Commission

Resolution No. 00-24

Resolution Recognizing and Expressing Appreciation to Mona Shoemate For Her Contributions to the Multistate Tax Commission

WHEREAS, the loss of well-mannered Mississippi was the gain of the rough and tumble of Texas and the Multistate Tax Commission; and

WHEREAS, many asked “what’s a nice lady like this doing in the business of tax administration?”; and

WHEREAS, depth of knowledge of multistate tax affairs and disarming and sincere concern for others together with an extraordinary ability to listen to others was answer enough to respond to this inquiry; and

WHEREAS, anyone who worked with this Mississippian always remarked about her enthusiasm, pleasantness, and loyalty, even in circumstances that hardly would draw this characteristic from most people; and

WHEREAS, the loss of this extraordinary lady from our community was finally processed into acceptance that the level of state tax consultancy would be improved immensely by her transfer to the “other side”; and

WHEREAS, among the many accomplishments we wish to acknowledge by this lady is no less than many, many years of service in the leadership of the Uniformity Committee that included the Vice-Chairwomanship and the Acting Chairwomanship of the Sales and Use Tax Subcommittee of the Uniformity Committee; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Multistate Tax Commission expresses its profound and sincere appreciation for the considerable contribution of Mona Shoemate to the administration of multistate tax matters; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Multistate Tax Commission invites Mona Shoemate to rejoin her colleagues in multistate tax administration should she ever again be inclined to do so.

Adopted this 28th day of July 2000 by the Multistate Tax Commission.

Dan R. Bucks, Executive Director
