

Resolution No. 2014C

Appreciation of Shirley K. Sicilian, General Counsel

Whereas, Shirley K. Sicilian joined the Multistate Tax Commission's legal division as Deputy General Counsel in 2003; and

Whereas, Shirley became the General Counsel to the Commission in 2006; and

Whereas, Shirley led the legal division with a benevolent but firm hand; and,

Whereas, Shirley always showed her staff her generous spirit and unfailing grace; and

Whereas, Shirley always found a way to include and acknowledge her staff's contributions to whatever project was on the table; and

Whereas, Shirley, despite the sometimes contentious nature of discussions about state taxation, always remained unflappable; and

Whereas, Shirley was the 2013 recipient of the Paull Mines Award; and

Whereas, the award is given to an individual who exemplifies leadership, legal excellence, professional integrity and commitment to shared knowledge among state tax attorneys; and

Whereas, Shirley truly is a model of all those attributes; and

Whereas, Shirley was a powerful advocate for, and unfailing champion of, the Multistate Tax Compact and its members; and

Whereas, Shirley left the Commission in 2013 to pursue an opportunity elsewhere; and;

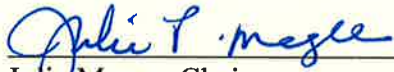

Whereas, Shirley, true to her adventurous spirit, has a penchant for vacationing in the wilderness and so likened her new career opportunity to a new adventure;

Whereas, Shirley will be fondly remembered and missed; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Multistate Tax Commission express its heartfelt appreciation for Shirley K. Sicilian and her outstanding work as general counsel to the Commission; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Multistate Tax Commission wish Shirley all the best in her new adventures, both wild and domestic.

Adopted this 30th day of July, 2014.
