Marketplace

A physical or electronic place [including but not limited to, a store, booth, Internet website, catalog, television or radio broadcast, or a dedicated sales software application—see CT, KY, OK, PA statutes] where [a marketplace seller sells or offers for sale—see SD statute] tangible personal property [taxable services, digital goods] is/are offered for sale [for delivery in this state—see SD statute][regardless of whether the tangible personal property, digital property, marketplace seller, or marketplace has a physical presence in the state—see KY, SD statutes, LA supports].

Marketplace seller

A person [not a related party to a marketplace facilitator—see AL statute] who has an agreement with a marketplace facilitator [regarding sales of such person—see CT statute] and makes retail sales of tangible personal property [taxable services, digital goods] through a marketplace owned, operated, or controlled by a marketplace facilitator [whether or not such person is required to register . . . –see CT, WA statutes] [even if such person would not have been required to collect and remit sales and use tax had the sale not been made through such marketplace—see IA statute]

MN: Add requirement that marketplace provider have a place of business in the state.
PA: No need for the requirement that the marketplace provider/facilitator have a place of business in the state.

Marketplace facilitator[provider]

Narrow definition: GA (need to include exclusion for “payment processing services” when that is all the business does), KY, MN, OK, PA support

Any person who facilitates a retail sale by a marketplace seller by:
(1) listing or advertising for sale by a marketplace seller in a marketplace, tangible personal property [services, or digital goods that are subject to tax under this chapter] [rendering services in connection with such sales or otherwise enhancing or enabling such sales for compensation, other than merely providing payment processing services]; and
(2) either directly or indirectly through agreements or arrangements with third parties collecting payment from the customer and transmitting that payment to the marketplace seller [for compensation—see CT statute] [regardless of whether the marketplace facilitator receives compensation or other consideration in exchange for its services—see MN, SD statutes].
