

Corporate Income Tax Auditor I/II/III

The State of Alaska, Department of Revenue, Tax Division, is looking for a Corporate Income Tax Auditor I/II/III to join our team.

This position is a flexibly staffed position. The vacancy may be filled at either the I, II or III level depending on the applicant's training and/or experience. Applicants may only be hired at the level for which they specifically apply. Therefore, applicants are strongly encouraged to apply for ALL LEVELS of this position for which they may qualify.

Our auditors perform audits of multistate/multinational corporations with an emphasis on the oil and gas industry. While the audits require some examination of books and records, the audits typically involve tax research and analysis of multi-million dollar issues dealing with formulary apportionment, accounting methods, corporate reorganizations, foreign operations and corporate tax shelter strategies.

Full time employment benefits with the State of Alaska include medical, dental, vision and life insurance, eleven paid holidays annually, two days personal leave accrual monthly, two retirement plans and other elective benefits.

The Corporate Income Tax Auditor position is located in Anchorage and the monthly starting salary ranges from $4,479.00; $5,127.00 or $5,860.00 depending on the level at which you apply.
