

Multistate Tax Commission

Resolution of Appreciation

Frank D. Katz, Deputy General Counsel

1999-2002

and

General Counsel, 2002-2006

Whereas, Frank D. Katz began his tenure with the Multistate Tax Commission in 1999 as Deputy General Counsel; and

Whereas, Frank became the Commission's General Counsel in 2002; and

Whereas, Frank is steadfast in his belief that an effective state government starts with sensible tax policies; and

Whereas, Frank has put this belief into practice through his work in developing model uniform statutes and regulations, including the Commission's Business Activity Nexus recommendation, which uses the three factors of property, payroll and sales to determine nexus for a multijurisdictional taxpayer; and

Whereas, Frank has agitated vigorously for states to advance fair and efficient tax policies; and

Whereas, Frank's work in the field of state taxation has paved the way for states to improve existing state tax policies; and

Whereas, Frank resigned his position as General Counsel for the Commission to pursue an opportunity as City Attorney for the City of Santa Fe, New Mexico; and

Whereas, the States and the Commission have been fortunate to be the recipients of Frank's wit, wisdom and expertise in matters of state tax policy; and;

Whereas, Frank leaves behind his many friends in the States and on the staff of the Commission, all of whom will miss him greatly; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Multistate Tax Commission expresses its deep gratitude to Frank D. Katz for his outstanding and invaluable work on behalf of the Commission; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Commission wishes Frank all the best in his new endeavor as City Attorney for the City of Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Adopted by the Multistate Tax Commission this 17th day of August, 2006.
