

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE ADMINISTRATION
MULTI-STATE TAX AUDITOR
$64,246 - $89,414

The New Hampshire Department of Revenue Administration seeks an experienced tax professional to serve as a Multi-State Tax Auditor. The successful candidate will generally audit the New Hampshire business tax returns filed by companies with an obligation to apportion income to the state. Other duties include auditing other NH taxes, such as the real estate transfer tax. Most of these audits will be field audits, requiring the candidate to travel to any of the 50 states to review the company's records at its headquarters. The candidate will be expected to understand and apply New Hampshire tax laws and the Internal Revenue Code, along with the respective regulations, as well as state and federal court decisions, GAAP, and any specialized industry practices or rules. A more detailed description of job duties can be found here: <https://www.revenue.nh.gov/career/index.htm>

Minimum Qualifications:

EDUCATION: Bachelor's degree from a recognized college or university with a major study in accounting, finance, business management or related field. Master's degree in related field or professional license in a related field preferred. In order to receive credit for post-secondary education, a copy of official transcripts with a seal and/or a signature MUST be included with this application.

EXPERIENCE: At least 4 years' experience in accounting or auditing work associated with tax preparation, planning or administration. Work history demonstrating SALT experience and comprehensive tax and problem-solving ability preferred.

Interested candidates can submit letter of interest and resume to: Multi-State Chief, Jacob Thom, NH DRA, 109 Pleasant Street, PO Box 457, Concord, NH 03302 or by e-mail to Jacob.W.Thom@dra.nh.gov.
