

Tax Counsel
Washington, DC

Our client a global association is seeking a new Tax Counsel to be primarily responsible for State & Local Tax Income issues. This position will have a key role in the development of this association's positions on important tax policy and administrative issues. Additionally:

- Outstanding visibility with industry leaders, senior tax administrators, federal and state policymakers, professional service providers, academics and others.
- Opportunity to work on the most cutting edge tax policy, without the administrative (billable hours) and selling pressures associated with the for-profit firms.
- Chance to have broad exposure to other areas within this organization long-term and be able to leverage this experience for future opportunities in the public or private sector.
- Good balance of life and attractive geographical location.

Candidate Profile:

- Juris doctorate required. Undergraduate degree in accounting preferred.
- Minimum of 3+ years of experience, but more seasoned candidates will definitely be considered.
- Strong State & Local income tax experience. Any legislative work experience is a plus.
- Excellent oral and written communication skills. Ability to produce a substantial volume of high quality written work.
- Superior analytical skills, self starter, open, positive and enthusiastic about his/her work. Ability to juggle multiple projects.

If you are a fit for this position, please contact me ASAP or if you know someone who is a fit, please pass this information to them.
